“40 UNDER 40” WINNER

Jonathan Yosha graduated with a finance degree from the McCombs School of Business at the University of Texas. After spending four years running the secondary marketing/capital markets department for a $1 billion-plus lender, he became vice president of Matchbox LLC. He has more than 10 years of mortgage banking experience, and while his core focus is in secondary marketing, he also has the unique ability to see how back end procedures and decision making impact every step of the origination process. His beliefs in utilizing technology to improve workflow, execution, and management of departments have allowed clients to recognize tremendous revenue growth.
